

GOSFORD HILL SCHOOL

Governor Vacancy at Gosford Hill School

Gosford Hill School, Kidlington

The Governing Body at Gosford Hill School is looking to appoint a new Governor with immediate start. If you have a finance and resources background, then this could be your chance to make a real difference and contribute to effective governance and the success of the school and its students.

What exactly do Governors do?

Governors play a vital role in shaping the education of young people by helping set the Ethos, Vision and Strategy for the school.

The Governing Body comprises people drawn from the school's community: parents, school staff and the community as a whole. The Governing Body act corporately and are collectively responsible for decisions.

Why do people become school Governors?

- A great way to make a positive impact on young people's lives and to contribute to issues that you feel passionately about.
- A great opportunity to use and develop your skills in a unique environment that will benefit you personally and professionally.
- Contribute to the community.
- Make an impact on Gosford Hill School's students' lives.
- An outstanding learning and development opportunity to acquire board-level leadership, strategy and team working skills.

I'm interested! What do I do now?

If you can commit to approximately two evenings per term and occasional events and would like to find out more about the role, then please contact Clare Carpen, Clerk to arrange an information session with one of our current Governors on 01865 374971 or clare.carpen@gosford-hill.oxon.sch.uk
